Golfers who opt for a stay and golf package can choose between a one- or two-night stay at Silver Reef Casino Resort, each with various services as part of the package, including shuttle service between the resort and golf course. The two-night stay package, for example, includes unlimited golf with a cart, range balls, a dozen golf balls, a $100 resort or pro shop credit and more.

Silver Reef Casino Resort features an award-winning fine dining restaurant, The Steak House at Silver Reef, as well nine other food and beverage venues on site. An award-winning spa provides relaxing signature treatments, some designed just for men, following your day on the course.

Silver Reef Casino Resort is located about halfway between downtown Bellingham, Washington, and the U.S.-Canada border crossing in Blaine. 🇺🇸🇨🇦

The Lummi Nation's Silver Reef Casino Resort in Whatcom County, Washington, is a full-service resort with hotel, several casual and fine dining options, a spa and, of course, a full array of gaming. In addition, stay and golf packages at nearby Loomis Trail Golf Course are available through Silver Reef.

Loomis Trail Golf Course has implemented an aggressive agronomic approach to develop putting surfaces, fairways and approaches, with a focus on course drainage, irrigation and a course-wide topdressing and sanding program. Golfers can expect pristine water features on every hole with an extensive canal and lake system, and clean sightlines ensure a picturesque experience throughout the course.

Golfweek has rated Loomis Trail among the top public courses in Washington. The Loomis Trail goal? Course staff strives to offer the best year-round golfing experience in Washington and British Columbia.
